Walk in Unity By Senior Pastor Tom Harrison Grow Together Sermon Series July 4, 2021

Some images affect us when we see the word, "walk," in the Bible, such as the "hide and seek" game in Genesis 3:8: "And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden." And the beloved verse from Psalm 23: "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death...."

In the book, "Sit, Walk, Stand," Watchman Nee says Christians SIT (Ephesians 2:6) in the heavenly places, WALK (Ephesians 2:8, 4:1, 5:2) in a worthy manner with the Lord, and STAND (Ephesians 6:11) against the wiles of the devil. There are certain things we must oppose, resist, and refuse to compromise on. These are primary issues of doctrine and behavior.

Paul lists five characteristics of a "worthy walk" in Ephesians 4:1-3. Four out of five (excluding humility) are listed as fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23). Our readings this week focus on these. Humility, gentleness, patience, love, and peace help us to maintain the unity of the Holy Spirit in the church.

APPLICATION: How are you doing with these five traits of following Jesus? What does eagerness to maintain unity mean to you? How willing are you to agree to disagree agreeably? What are you doing to help the church be unified? How are you growing in your faith? How are you reaching out to others in love? What do you need to remove from your life that is preventing unity?

As a teenager, I read a little book by Watchman Nee: "Sit, Walk, Stand." When at Asbury Seminary, I heard a sermon series in Wilmore on "Christian Postures:" In addition to "Sit, Walk, Stand," there are other Christian postures: falling (people fell before Jesus as an act of worship in the gospels but also in Revelation), kneeling (prayer) and lifting (Psalm 121:1-2 I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth), raising (hands in praise), running (run your race), looking (Hebrews 12:1-2 "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith."

Here are the 3 Christian postures that Watchman Nee listed found sequentially in Ephesians: 1st we SIT in heavenly places. Eph 2:6 (KJV) "And hath raised us up together and made us SIT TOGETHER in heavenly places in Christ Jesus." To sit is to rest. We trust the chair. We put all of our weight on the chair. We depend upon something outside us. When we sit, we do not have to depend upon our own ability to walk or to stand. We sit in heavenly places with Christ. And notice that it is "us sit together." We grow together in Christ. The Christian faith does not begin with our walk or our standing, but with sitting – resting, trusting in Christ. Jesus' work and what He has done for us is what Ephesians 1-3 is about. The Christian life never begins with us – it always begins with Christ. However, there is always a response for us to make to the Gospel.

So we move to Ephesians 4-6 and about the two things we are to do: we WALK with Christ. Eph 2:10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should WALK in them.

Eph 4:1 I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to WALK in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called,

Eph 4:17-18 Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer WALK as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds.

Eph 5:2 WALK in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Eph 5:8-10 WALK as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true) and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord.

Eph 5:15-17 Look carefully then how you WALK, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil.

3rd we STAND against evil. Ephesians 6:10-14 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to STAND against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore, take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to STAND firm. STAND therefore....

In Ephesians 1-3, we see that God acted first. In 4-6, we get to cooperate with God. Paul describes Christian doctrine and then urges application of that doctrine.

Ephesians 4:1-3 (pew Bible #1161)

I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, ² with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, ³ eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Paul a prisoner for (or "in") the Lord, urged the Ephesians to walk in a manner worthy of their calling. The word "worthy" comes from the Greek word, "axios." Our word, "axiom" (a "proverbial saying" – things we frequently say) comes from it. The author of a book called "Axiom" urged us to write down our own axioms I have 204 of them (call the office and I'll send one to you).

"When's the last possible moment I have to decide?" (Eisenhower)

"I get in trouble when I tell more than I know." (A.B. Steen)

"If the preacher won't tithe, the church won't grow."

"The best of all – God is with us." (John Wesley's last words)

"If if's and buts were candy and nuts, we'd all have a Merry Christmas" (Dandy Don Meredith) "Good leadership may be disappoint people at a rate they can absorb."

It literally means "to be of equal weight." Paul says to live in equal weight to the great blessings described in chapters 1-3. How do we walk in a worthy manner? One important way is by growing together. We are to live in unity. 5 words describe walking in a worthy manner:

1) Humility: The opposite of humility is pride. One of my axioms is, "Humility is the essential virtue; pride is the essential vice." Pride means I don't need you or anyone else, including God. It was pride that made the devil the devil. Humility means openness. Pride closes us off from others. Pride causes disunity.

2) Gentleness: Opposite: harsh, rough. Do you want a gentle doctor with good bedside manners or one who is harsh? A dentist who is gentle or rough? A doctor with good bedside manners is not incompetent, but gentleness and humility create openness, not defensiveness. Matthew 11:29-30 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

3) Patience: Opposite: impatient, rash, impulsive, angry, annoyed, short-tempered. Noah, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, David, Daniel, Jesus, Paul, and John in Revelation are all examples of patience in scripture.

4) Love: Opposite: Hatred or indifference. He uses an interesting term, "bearing with one another." Love will not always be easy. The Greek word is "agape," which is not just "friendship," or "family," or "romantic/sexual" in nature. It is not a feeling or an emotion – it is an act of the will. It what we decide to do/be. I worked for a pastor who had this axiom he often told his congregation, "I may not like you, but I must love you." Loving people is hard. Loving unlovely people is harder. Loving your enemies is the hardest of all. G.K. Chesterton said the reason the Bible tells us that we are to "love our neighbors AND love our enemies" is because generally are the same people.

5) An eagerness for the bond of Peace: Opposite (War, disharmony). Make every effort to be at peace. Value unity. Work at it. Be attentive to it. Invest energy in it. When unified, we can accomplish great things.

We see these 5 words lived out in the life of Jesus: Everything about Him represented humility (birth, ministry, death). He didn't come to be served but to serve. He was humble and gentle. He showed incredible patience with His disciples. He was the essence of love. And of course, Jesus is known as the Prince of Peace.

COVID shut our world down. We're trying to get back to normal. Things are still weird. There's been a lot of atrophy – muscles have weakened. We're trying to recover. There are new things we're trying to do. Last week I told you about a new series we'll do starting September 5th around a book called "The Magnificent Story."

I've heard it said that there are two things missing today in our culture: a sense of purpose and a sense of belonging. Asbury tries to get people into communities where both of these can happen. Next Sunday at 9:30, we begin a study on the Wesleyan Class Meeting. The Class Meeting was how John Wesley organized the Methodist movements. James Lambert (happy birthday tomorrow) will lead a 8-week study on how we can do this, too. It will meet in the chapel from 9:30 – 10:30. It starts July 11th and goes until August 29. We intend to form a permanent new ADC community from this. They will be studying a book written by the son of Matt and Teilla Watson (Asbury members). Kevin Watson's book is "The Class Meeting." You can sign up at Guest Services or on this link: : The Class Meeting | Asbury United Methodist Church | Tulsa (asburytulsa.org)

People who haven't learned how to love will always feel like victims. Their worldview is always on themselves and how they felt and how they were hurt. They do not take responsibilities for their own actions but shift the blame to others. Victims have an endless list of foes. I've just read a book called "The Happiest Man on Earth." Eddie Jaku was 99 years old when he gave a TEDx talk in Sydney, Australia. He is a survivor of Auschwitz. Any Holocaust victim would have more of a right than anyone to remain stuck in that narrative. I repeat the name of his book, "The Happiest Man on Earth." He decided to shed that identity and find a new narrative.

- 95.) "Leaders Eat Last"

96.) "Our greatest fear shouldn't be failure but in succeeding in something that really doesn't matter."

97.) "Every saint has a past, & every sinner has a future." (Oscar Wilde)

98.) "The hardest part of being a pastor = getting people to understand the gospel. Most think Christianity is a religion, and that Jesus is an ethical guide. Few understand grace or what it actually means to be a Christian. Yet because they assume they do, they do not listen carefully to the offer God extends." To make it quite practical I have a very simple test. After I have explained the way of Christ to somebody I say "Now, are you ready to say that you are a Christian?" And they hesitate. And then I say, "What's the matter? Why are you hesitating?" And so often people say, "I don't feel like I'm good enough yet. I don't think I'm ready to say I'm a Christian now." And at once I know that I have been wasting my breath. They are still thinking in terms of themselves. They have to do it. It sounds very modest to say, "Well, I don't think I'm good enough," but it's a very denial of the faith. The very essence of the Christian faith is to say that He is good enough and I am in Him. As long as you go on thinking about yourself like that and saying, "I'm not good enough; Oh, I'm not good enough," you are denying God – you are denying the Gospel – you are denying the very essence of the faith and you will never be happy. How can I put it plainly? It doesn't matter if you have almost entered into the depths of hell. It does not matter if you are guilty of murder as well as every other vile sin. It does not matter from the standpoint of being justified before God at all. You are no more hopeless than the most moral and respectable person in the world (Martin Lloyd Jones) 99.) Good leadership may be disappointing people at a rate they can absorb Leadership on the Line (Linsky & Heifetz)

100.) "Feed Yourself" (Prayer Journal & Bible Study Guide)

101.) "Tolerance is the virtue of people who do not believe anything" (G.K. Chesterton)

102.) "Heaven is much too serious a place for work. It will be all dance & play there" (C.S. Lewis)

103.) "You can't go back & change the beginning, but you can start where you are and change the ending." (C.S. Lewis)

104.) Friendship is born at the moment when one man says to another what? You too? I thought that no one but myself... CS Lewis

105.) "More Wag; Less Bark" (The Power of Encouragement)

106.) "When people fail to talk about problems it ferments into problems with people."

107.) "We can't do anything about our beginning, but we can do something about our ending."

108.) "You catch more flies with honey than with vinegar." "The theologian who labors

without joy is not a theologian at all. Sulky faces, morose thoughts and boring ways of speaking are intolerable in this field." -Karl Barth

109.) Less is More

110.) "If you can't illustrate it, you don't understand it" (Bible study)

111.) Monks have a name for people who make their life difficult = "Teachers." One wrote: The monastic tradition has a name for people who are sometimes-quite-difficult and with whom we would not have chosen but we end up sharing life with: 'Teachers.' They teach us about ourselves; they expose us to what otherwise we may not see in ourselves or show to others."

112.) "Exclamation Points build walls; questions open doors." Ask Q's. Shut up. Listen.

113.) "Company policy" means there is no understandable reason for this action. (Herbert Prochnow, American writer). Managing Transitions p 62. Have a purpose (mission – why you're doing it), have a picture (vision – what it looks like), have a step-by-step plan (details - how you'll get there) and give everyone a part to play ("here's your responsibility")

114.) "All of life is repentance." #1 of Luther's 95 theses. Repentance is not "one and done" at conversion but is the way to advance at every stage of the Christian life.

115.) Live long enough and you'll have trauma

116.) Treat people as adults (don't patronize, give people options)

136.) You'll never find rainbows if you're looking down. Charlie Chaplin 137.) What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us. Ralph Waldo Emerson 138.) Courage doesn't always roar. Sometimes courage is the quiet voice at the end of the day saying, I will try again tomorrow. Mary Anne Radmacher 139.) Do what you can where you are with what you have. Squire Bill Widener

140.) The person who says it cannot be done should not interrupt the person who is doing it. Chinese Proverb

141.) We can easily forgive a child who is afraid of the dark; the real tragedy of life is when men are afraid of the light. Plato 142.) Experience is not what happens to us; it is what we do with what happens to us. Aldous Huxley 143.) As long as you are breathing it's never too late to do some good. Maya Angelou 144.) You miss 100% of the shots you don't take. Wayne Gretzky 145.) Find a place inside where there's joy, and the joy will burn out the pain. Joseph Campbell 146.) We must be willing to let go of the life we have planned, so as to except a life that is waiting for us. Joseph Campbell 147.) There can be no deep disappointment where there is not deep love. Martin Luther King Jr 148.) Faith is taking the first step, even when you don't see the whole staircase. Martin Luther King Jr 149.) Everybody is a genius. But if you judge a fish by its ability to climb a tree, it will spend its whole life believing it is stupid. Albert Einstein

150.) Do not grow old no matter how long we live. Never cease to stand like curious children before the great mystery in there which we are born. Albert Einstein 151.) Imagination is more important than knowledge. Albert Einstein

152.) Unless someone like you cares a whole awful lot, nothing is going to get better. It's not. Dr. Seuss 153.) Don't cry because it's over; smile because it happened. Dr. Seuss 154.) There are two goals in life: Learn wisdom + have others to share it with 155.) "2 ears. 1 mouth." (Listen twice as much as you talk)

156.) When we cease to believe in God, it's not that we believe in nothing, it's that we believe in everything." (G.K. Chesterton) Explains zeal. Some of it is not healthy.

157.) General invitations obtain general results. (Be specific in your requests)

158.) Self-pity is a pathetic trait for a leader. (George W Bush)

159.) The least committed in a relationship has the most power.

160.) "A smooth sea never made a skilled mariner."

161.) "Suffering's great power is that it's an interruption of life. It reminds you that you're not the person you thought you were." (David Brooks)

162.) "When you teach once, you learn twice." (Steven Covey)

163.) If you wait for perfect conditions, you will never get anything done. Ecclesiastes 11:4

191.) "Of all the bad men, religious bad men are the worst." Reflections on the Psalms C.S.L

192.) "Humility is not thinking less of yourself but thinking of yourself less." Mere Christianity 193.) "I do not ask the wounded person how he feels... I myself become the wounded person." (Walt Whitman)

194.) "The whole law of human existence consists in nothing other than a man's always being able to bow before the immeasurably great. If people are deprived of the immeasurably great, they will not live and will die in despair. The measurable and infinite are as necessary for man as the small planet he inhabits." (Fyodor Dostoyevsky)

195.) "The problem with the world is all the intelligent people are full of doubt and all the stupid people are full of confidence."

196.) We need 3 things to be happy. We got to have something to do, someone to love, and something to look forward to. You can be happy whether you're blind, broke, burned out, or anything else and you can be a billionaire and have everything in the world but if you don't have 1 of those 3 it's it doesn't work. For most people if you're not a Believer you must find these things. If you're a Believer, all you have to do is find 1 thing. That's why "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these other things will be added to you." If you follow Christ. You got something to do, someone to love, & something to look forward to.

(Jim Stovall)

197.) "With the fearful strain that is upon me day and night, if I did not laugh, I should die." (President Abe Lincoln during the Civil War)

198.) "Efficiency is doing things right; effectiveness is doing the right things." Peter Drucker 199.) "Sabotage is not the bad things that evil people do but the human things anxious people do." (Tod Bolsinger)

200.) "THE DOGS BARK BUT THE CARAVAN MOVES ON" (Arab Proverb)

201.) "Don't let the failure of your last pitch affect the success of your next one." (Nolan Ryan) 202.) "Don't cash the check until you've written a thank you note." (My mom – with gifts received)

203.) "You leave a monkey at the piano long enough and he will play a tune" (Jim Cooper – was a football coach)
